MEMORANDUM FOR Aviator Review and Selection Board Applicants

SUBJECT: FY 2025 Aviator Review and Selection Board Application Process

1. Reference: AR 611-110.
NG Supplement 1, AR 95-1
2. The FY 2025 Aviator Review and Selection Board for the Rhode Island Army National Guard (RIARNG) meets at 1000 hrs on 21 November 2024 at the Army Aviation Support Facility, Quonset Air National Guard Base, North Kingstown, Rhode Island. The board evaluates applicants for entering RIARNG aviation units and training as an aviation officer. The board consists of senior RIARNG aviation leaders.
3. Applicants interested in training as an Army Aviation Officer (Commissioned or Warrant) submit application paperwork (see enclosed checklist) NLT 15 November 2024 per paragraph 9 of this memo. See enclosed checklist for flight training selection prerequisites. All items listed on checklist must be completed for board considerations.
4. FDME Class I Requirements:
 - a. Scheduling: Contact Battalion Medical Readiness NCO (SSG Medieros) at 401-275-4587.
 - b. FMDE Class I is an extensive examination, requiring a minimum of two appointments to complete. Applicants must be in a duty status and able to complete each portion of the two-day event in a UTA period (4 hours). Applicants receive an initial determination from the Rhode Island Army National Guard Aeromedical Staff, this interim approval is acceptable for board appearance.
 - c. The physical exam is not deemed qualified until stamped as such by the United States Army Aeromedical Command at Fort Novosel, AL.
5. Applicants submit a DA Form 4187, signed by their current commander, acknowledging intent to transfer to Army Aviation, and provide a statement as to whether the applicant has attended military flight training previously. Applicant must acknowledge the 10-service obligation upon successful completion of Initial Entry Rotary Wing training.
6. Applicants should apply for consideration regardless of waiver requirements or the inability to provide all checklist documents. The potential for age, medical, and moral waivers exists but is a consideration when the board develops its order of merit list.
